

This is a list of words to be used along with Exponents – Section 1: The Meaning of Exponents. The words students input are the words that students need to input within the software, spelled correctly, to complete a section. These words could be reviewed before starting a section and placed on a word wall.

Section 1: The Meaning of Exponents

Words Students Input	Words For Your Word Wall (This is a list of words that students should have prior knowledge of OR they will know by the end of the section) even base power negative exponent odd positive	doubles exponentially exponential growth exponents power base factor expression substitution variable approximately graphs worth comparison quantity triples