

This is a list of words to be used along with Fractions – Section 15: Multiplication and Division of Decimals. The words students input are the words that students need to input within the software, spelled correctly, to complete a section. These words could be reviewed before starting a section and placed on a word wall.

Section 15: Multiplication and Division of Decimals

Words Students Input	Words For Your Word Wall (This is a list of words that students should have prior knowledge of OR they will know by the end of the section) multiply thousandths tenths two four bigger hundredths smaller	fractions multiply repeated addition partial product area distributive method rectangle standard method division partial quotient fair sharing long division decimals repeating decimals rounding compare tangram square whole numbers units equal groups of sum tenths ones hundredths thousandths divide equivalent denominator numerator same remainder point nearest distance round to 2 decimal places “is approximately equal to” symbol (\approx) greater than

