

This is a list of words to be used along with Percent – Section 7: Percent in Business. The words students input are the words that students need to input within the software, spelled correctly, to complete a section. These words could be reviewed before starting a section and placed on a word wall.

Section 7: Percent in Business

Words Students Input	Words For Your Word Wall (This is a list of words that students should have prior knowledge of OR they will know by the end of the section) first	sales tax discount commission simple interest compound interest amount principle interest annually depreciation mortgage