

This is a list of words to be used along with Probability – Section 1: Introduction to Probability. The words students input are the words that students need to input within the software, spelled correctly, to complete a section. These words could be reviewed before starting a section and placed on a word wall.

Section 1: Introduction to Probability

Words Students Input	Words For Your Word Wall (This is a list of words that students should have prior knowledge of OR they will know by the end of the section)
gray green heads pine tails oak possible unlikely likely maple certain impossible equally likely yellow	chance probability probable possible outcomes sample space spinner predict tree diagram square circle pair different